

I am writing to express my concern over the FCC decision to expand the broadcast service known as LPFM, and to allow these services to take precedence over FM translator services offered by regional and national services such as K-LOVE. I listen to K-LOVE on 95.9 and 91.9 FM stations. I work for a home medical equipment supply company and spend a lot of time in my vehicle. I listen to K-love for the positive and encouraging music they play. I keep it tuned to K-LOVE even when I'm not working so that my children can hear uplifting music, instead of negative, offensive music which I feel is detrimental. There is enough negative stuff out there. We need to keep positive, uplifting music on the airwaves. K-LOVE supplies a needed service to a hurting world. They are available twenty four hours a day and have been directly responsible for saving lives of people contemplating suicide. We don't need another talk radio or pop radio station out there promoting the negative, we need K-LOVE.
